REFERENDUM UPON PROHIBITION HERE, IS KUHIO'S IDEA

Delegate's Attitude Unchanged, Says Cablegram From Capital

Special Star-Bulletin Cable.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—Delegate Kuhio's views on prohibition for Hawaii have undergone no change, the Star-Bulletin correspondent was assured today.
Delegate Kuhio believes that the people of Hawaii should decide for themselves the temperance legislation to be enacted for the territory. He favors a referendum on the prohibition bill.
C. S. ALBERT.
According to reports from the Anti-Saloon League, the delegate opposes Hawaii's being singled out for prohibition legislation, but if Congress is to adopt the policy of making all the territories "dry," he would not oppose this. Otherwise he would ask for a referendum.

MAY RECONSIDER PUUNUI OUTLET

That the outlet for the Puunui district and the extent of its eastern boundary has not been definitely settled has been announced again today at the meeting of the board of supervisors in the form of amendment to the outlet of a straight road from the outlet of the Country Club grounds, was learned today.

The amendments are to be introduced by Robert Hornor, according to a plan of his own, which to a large extent incorporated the idea of the City Planning Commission. This plan, Hornor says, is backed by both Supervisors F. M. Hatch and Charles N. Arnold and when it was explained to Dan Logan he also declared it was much better than stopping the district at Hawaii street and making the extension of the same street the outlet. According to the plan which Hornor has drawn up and which will be introduced in the form of an amendment to the outlet to Puunui will be a straight road from Nuuanu avenue through the main side of Henry Holmes property, across Nuuanu stream and through lot 34 in block 1 of the Puunui district to Aiea street. If desired the street can also be extended through to Kakaia avenue. Hornor claims that the small swamp which the street will have to cross near the street may be easily drained at a cost of not over $500. The amendment also makes the eastern boundary of the Country Club property as in the original plan when Circle Drive was under consideration instead of Hawaii street.

For future improvements Hornor's plans call for the extension of Jack lane straight through to connect with Puunui road at Aiea and a road to connect the outlet and Jack lane along the line drawn up by the planning commission.

JUDGE ASHFORD AWAITS NEWS FROM HIGH COURT ON COMPENSATION ACTS

Whether the workman's compensation act, passed by the last Hawaiian legislature, is or is not constitutional, will be decided by a decision now being prepared by Circuit Judge Ashford and which will be handed down within a short time.

Decisions on two or three substantially similar acts are now pending in the supreme court of the United States and Circuit Judge Ashford has been waiting for several weeks for opinions on one or two of them. One case was argued at the last term of the supreme court but was ordered reargued with one or two of the others. These are sent from Washington, Ohio, and Michigan.

The decisions from the supreme court may be decisive of the questions now before Judge Ashford and he may wait for the decision before handing down the decision on the local act.

BROWN GOES TO COURT TO SEEK REINSTATEMENT

Kinney and School Board Are Respondents in Case of Former Teacher

A petition for mandamus, in which he seeks to force Superintendent Henry W. Kinney and the members of the school commission to reinstate him as principal of the Waimea, Kauai, school, was filed Monday afternoon in the circuit court at Lihue by Henry C. Brown, who, with his wife, was not represented for the present school term.

Aside from Kinney, other respondents in the case are Capt. L. G. Blackman, W. H. Smith, E. A. Knudsen, Mr. Theodore Richards, D. C. Lind and Mrs. Emma A. Bond. The papers have not yet been served on the respondents. No definite date has been set for them to appear and show cause why Brown should not be reinstated. Attorney Fred Patterson of Kauai represents Brown.

The school board, for cause, failed to reappoint the Browns to the Waimea school at the annual meeting in which teachers were selected for the present school year. They demanded a hearing before the commission, which they were given. The hearing lasted two days, and the commission declined to alter its initial decision. After the hearing Attorney Patterson instituted to the Star-Bulletin that a suit of some sort undoubtedly would be brought against Kinney and the commission.

Brown alleges that, on September 11, 1916, the respondents "willfully, deliberately, knowingly, wrongfully and unlawfully" failed to allow the petitioner to teach as principal at the Waimea school, or to teach at any other school. He claims that he is now and has been in the employ of the territory as a teacher, and asserts that at no time has he been committed or caused to be committed any act of immorality, insubordination or inefficiency.

It is further alleged that Brown never has been regularly or lawfully dismissed from the services of the department, nor has he been given any cause or reason for being dismissed, and plaintiff asserts that he was removed without right.

Superintendent Kinney this morning conferred with the attorney-general's office with regard to the mandamus proceeding.

WASHINGTON, D. The committee had been ordered by the house to look into the charges and report on Wood's resolution. Today the committee disagreed as to whether a contempt action should be lodged against Thomas W. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 11.—Further action is to be taken by the U. Revocation of Bopp's "sequestration," or official recognition as consul-general by the U. S. government, is asked by U. S. District Attorney Preston, who handled the prosecution. Preston said today that this had been referred to President Wilson, based on evidence submitted at the trial. Bopp and his convicted associates expect to appeal to the highest court. A new trial will be asked.

Superintendent of Public Works Forbes saw Lane during a flying trip here and proceeded immediately to Boston for an operation. There is no suggestion of Collector Franklin for governor.

JAPANESE PRESS IN CRUSADE AGAINST HEALTH CONDITIONS

JUDGE WHITNEY'S RESIGNATION HAS GONE TO GREGORY

Three Changes Involved By Circuit Jurist's Action; He Joins Smith, Warren & Sutton, E. W. Sutton Becomes Manager of Bishop Trust, and Manager Willard E. Brown Retires Because of Plans for Long Mainland Stay

Following the news today that Circuit Judge Whitney has resigned, the Star-Bulletin learned and received confirmation of the fact that E. W. Sutton is to retire from the law firm of Smith, Warren & Sutton, which Judge Whitney joins, and will become manager and legal adviser of the Bishop Trust Company. Willard E. Brown, manager of the Bishop Trust, is retiring at his own request from active management, but will retain his interest in the company.

Hon. William L. Whitney, second judge and chief justice of the first circuit court, enabled his resignation from that office on Monday in a message to Attorney General Gregory at Washington.

Judge Whitney followed the cablegram with a letter giving reasons for his resignation, which will take effect as soon as he has finished the Kahoana land case, probably some time near the middle of the month.

Judge Whitney will enter private law practice, to be associated with Attorney W. O. Smith and Attorney L. J. Warren of the present firm of Smith, Warren & Sutton. Attorney E. W. Sutton of that firm will leave it about the same time Judge Whitney's resignation takes effect, to join the Bishop Trust.

Willard E. Brown has resigned as manager of the Bishop Trust Company, Ltd., and will be succeeded by Mr. Sutton, effective February 15.

This change is being made by the Bishop Trust Company at the request of Mr. Brown, who will spend considerable time during the next few years with Mrs. Brown on the mainland, where their son and daughter are attending college preparatory schools.

Mr. Brown will retain his interest in the company and continue as treasurer and director. Prior to January 1, 1914, when he took office as manager, the surplus of the company was capitalized. At the present time the surplus is about $70,000, aside from the company's payment of usual 6 per cent dividends to its stockholders. Under his administration the company has been handled with marked efficiency.

In Judge Whitney's resignation the government loses an official of 12 years' service. For 11 years he has served as judge, two years as police judge and eight years in the circuit court.

BERLIN REVIEWS RUMANIAN VICTORY

(German Official)
BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 11.—The battling of the German-Austrian ninth army in Rumania, from January 4 to 8, is summarized officially as follows: A complete victory was obtained in five days of battle on the Putna river. The enemy's positions, strong by nature and well fortified, were reduced. The principal parts of the positions were the bridgeheads of Fundeni and Focsani.

After the termination of the preparations an attack on January 4 drove the enemy from some positions and barbed wire positions were occupied January 5. A German division penetrated the bridgehead of Fundeni on January 6. A great Russian counter attack on a front of 35 kilometers was then launched. The Russians planned to pierce the center of the ninth army, but failed owing to the tenacious resistance of our troops. The attack which brought the enemy to a standstill and closed a hole temporarily opened in our lines. Thus on January 7 our attack could be carried further.

German and Austro-Hungarian troops under Maj.-Gen. Hüller and the enemy's 10th Army, Field Marshal G. Ingelinger penetrated the Focsani position, pierced it rapidly and crossed the second line, while simultaneously German and Alpine troops drove the enemy from the Odobesti mountains. By this time the battle was decided. The center and left wing of the Milcovu position could no longer be maintained by the enemy. On January 8 Focsani and the whole right Putna bank fell into the hands of the victors.

Besides inflicting bloody losses on the enemy, they lost nine officers and more than 5,400 men, three cannon and 10 machine guns.

TURKS ORDERED FROM EUROPE; REVISION OF MAP IS PLANNED

Reorganization of Europe, With Guarantee of Security For All Nations, is Price of Peace

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
LONDON, England, Jan. 11.—The Associated Press learned today and is able to announce the main terms of peace which the Allies demand in the answer the Entente group is making to the United States.

The reply gives an emphatic designation of terms. They include the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro and complete reparation for damage done these countries by the Central Powers.

Also included is the evacuation of the Teutons of the invaded territories of France, Russia and Rumania, with similar reparation for damages. The retirement of the Turks from Europe is demanded, the reorganization of Europe, with a guaranteed stable regime founded upon the respective nationalities being accorded full liberties, with assured security for great and small nations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—The reply of the Entente Allies is arriving in Washington and as fast as it is received it is being presented to President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing.

A neutral diplomat has information from a source considered reliable that the answer, though friendly and courteous, could not be accepted without modification by the Teutons. It is not held, however, to preclude another move should the president choose to make one.

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 11.—The Entente Allies have not brusquely closed the door on peace, but the German proposals on behalf of the Teutons offered no hope for an end to the war, and were not submitted in good faith, declared the new British Premier, David Lloyd George, before a vast crowd today in the historic Guild hall.

The premier's words, foreshadowing the contents of the note to the United States in response to the president's note to belligerents, were greeted with loud cheering.

He declared that Emperor Wilhelm of Germany has told the people of the Central Powers that the Entente Allies have rejected the peace offer of the Teutons and are prepared to crush the Teutonic nations. This declaration by Wilhelm, commented George, was made so that Germany could "drug those who could no longer dream."

"We have not rejected peace terms," he went on. "We were not offered peace terms. We were offered a trap baited with this words. It would completely suit Germany to secure a peace on her own terms. All of the Entente Allies want peace, but it must be a real peace. He said the Entente Allies are of the opinion that a continuance of the war is preferable to Russian domination of Europe. He declared also that the Allies had made this clear in their reply to Germany, and added significantly that it is made clearer in the Allies' reply to the United States.
